NLSC Events at GWCC

Full details for these sessions can be found in the NLSC App released today.

- ▶ Academy of Excellence: Registration for these sessions is included in NLSC registration fee for advisors, teachers, administrators and counselors.
- ▶ SkillsUSA University offers all registered NLSC attendees a chance to learn directly from industry expert practitioners and gain field-specific skills which they can later incorporate into their classroom instruction.
- ▶ SkillsUSA TECHSPO offers all registered NLSC attendees an opportunity to engage directly with partners from industry and education on the exhibit hall/competition floor.
- The Awards Session is available to view at no charge via live stream on your personal devices from the SkillsUSA website, and the viewing link will be posted the day of the event.
- The Advisor Summit registration option is exclusive to advisors who are not chaperoning students to competition

NLSC Community Service Sock Drive (this is in addition to the Fri am bike build)

The Need: Socks are one of the most requested clothing items at homeless shelters.

The Challenge: Drop packages of new socks into donation boxes stationed throughout the Georgia World Congress Center. Through a sock donation tracking system, we will follow the number of socks donated by the chapter. At the end of the week, all socks will be collected and donated to a local Atlanta charity. The chapter that donated the most socks will be recognized on stage at the Awards Session!

NLSC Updates

Contest updates are posted by the National office. You should be checking this regularly.

NLSC Contestant Reminders

Resumes: All competitors must create a one-page resume and submit via online portal. No upload=10 point penalty. Upload them but also have paper copies with students at orientation.

Professional Development Testing via the SkillsUSA Online Testing Platform. Student log ins were sent to the student's emails from the national office on May 23rd and from Texas to the advisor's emails on May 24th.

All Professional Development Tests must be completed by 5 p.m. ET on Friday, June 9 to be scored.

Action Skills, Building Maintenance, Community Action Project, Employment Application Process, and all middle school competitors are not required to complete the Professional Development test and will thus not be enrolled in a test.

Additional Online Testing: Competitors from select contests will also have a technical assessment for their contest loaded into their online testing account. Quiz Bowl, TeamWorks and Welding will have an online pre-conference assessment test and will see 2nd step at the same page as the PD Test.

Competitors in the Baking and Pastry Arts and Culinary Arts will complete an online third-party assessment(s) and will see 3rd step at the same page as the PD Test.

NLSC Contestant Email

CONGRATULATIONS, CHAMPION!

Congratulations on your recent success at your State Leadership and Skills Conference. You've put in the hours to master your craft and hone your skills to become a part of the best-of-the-best within your state. All the hours you've put in have earned you a spot at SkillsUSA 2023 SkillsUSA Championships. Below, you'll find some pre-conference details as well as some action items that you'll need to complete prior to your arrival in Atlanta. Please review this entire email and continue to check this email address for updates leading up to NLSC. We've created an easy Championships Checklist for your use:

SkillsUSA Championships Checklist

Step 1: Submit Your Resume

SkillsUSA provides an online tool for competitors to upload their resumes for the National Technical Committee. Competitors may begin submitting resumes and, if applicable, pre-submission documents using the SkillsUSA Championships Checklist. SkillsUSA national competitors will have until 5 p.m. ET on Friday, June 9, to submit their resume. Failure to submit a resume may result in a score penalty.

Upload My Resume

STEP 3: Complete Your ACF Culinary and Baking Exam If applicable

STEP 2: Take Your Professional Development Test

The SkillsUSA Professional Development Test is an online, pre-conference test. This test covers basic SkillsUSA Knowledge along with the SkillsUSA Framework. Competitors are limited to 50 minutes on the 50 multiple choice question test. Competitors may not utilize any external reference materials, resources, or persons during their test. The SkillsUSA Online Testing System has several security features built into it to ensure test integrity, including the automatic submission of your test should you open another tab or browser window while taking your test. Please uphold one of SkillsUSA's core values by demonstrating integrity while taking your online professional development test.

Below you will find your personal credentials to access your test. You may take your test anytime between now and Friday, June 9, at 5 p.m. ET. Any test submitted after 5 p.m. ET on June 9 WILL NOT be scored as a part of your overall Career Competition Event score. We recommend that you complete this requirement as soon as possible to ensure ample time to complete the test. If you experience technical difficulties, the SkillsUSA Customer Care Team can assist competitors with gaining access to testing accounts. The Customer Care Team can be contacted by email at customer care@skillsusa.org or by phone at (844) 875-4557.
